

Rocky Mountaineer and Lake Louise

The Canadian Rocky Mountains were formed millions of years ago as a result of the slow movement of the earth's crust and the grinding of massive glaciers, which sculpted the majestic Rockies during four major ice ages. It has been estimated that the oldest rock in the Canadian Rockies is over 600 million years old, and research indicates that this mountain region was once ocean shoreline.

We start with a rail adventure: we'll travel for two days through the Canadian Rockies from Vancouver on Canada's west coast to stunning Lake Louise, which is in the heart of Banff National Park. Our overnight stay will be in Kamloops, British Columbia. We'll see the sights by day and sleep in a hotel at night—on the Rocky Mountaineer you get the best of both worlds: maximum viewing time, and maximum comfort at night.

The National Parks in the Canadian Rockies are a haven for flora and fauna. Hundreds of wildflower species bloom in the Rockies; trees of many varieties landscape the park and the rail routes. Banff National Park alone is home to 57 species of mammals, 265 species of birds, 290 species of butterflies, and 19 species of fish. Thousands of elk inhabit the parks and we might also see the majestic bighorn sheep, black bears, grizzly bears, or moose. Bald eagles and osprey are frequently seen as well. Personable onboard hosts are adept at spotting wildlife and entertaining passengers with their story-telling.

As we draw near Lake Louise at the end of our rail journey, anticipate views of the historic Chateau Lake Louise where we'll spend two nights. Situated on the glacial lake of the same name, the hotel (now a Fairmont resort) is renowned for its beauty, hospitality, and the services offered to guests. During our free day there you may decide to enjoy the hotel amenities and mountain scenery, perhaps stroll around Lake Louise. The hotel concierge can help you book a day tour to the Icefield Parkway or Banff, or arrange canoeing, hiking or other outdoor activities. Or, you may simply want to sit by the lake or enjoy afternoon high tea.

To help you decide which level of service you prefer aboard the train, SilverLeaf or GoldLeaf, here are the differences. SilverLeaf seats are in a single-level dome coach with oversize domed windows; breakfast and lunch are served at your seats. GoldLeaf seats are in a bi-level dome car with fully domed windows; seats are on the top level and meals are served in the restaurant below. SilverLeaf coaches have small outdoor viewing platforms, while GoldLeaf coaches have large, exclusive outdoor platforms. Both service levels have seats which recline and are pre-assigned, include alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages, include snacks, and offer live narration by train hosts throughout the day. Hotel accommodations in Kamloops will be at more highly rated hotels for GoldLeaf passengers.

On this memorable rail journey glass-dome coaches will offer a panoramic view of your surroundings and make photography a snap—or you may get a little bit closer on the outdoor viewing platform. Friendly hosts and culinary team members will serve your meals, entertain you with stories, take care of special requests, and ensure your comfort. The Chateau Lake Louise will continue the pampering as we enjoy the magnificent Canadian wilderness. Reserve your SilverLeaf or GoldLeaf seat now on one of the great train journeys of the world.
